1954: April. W KUTZBACH and W RISCHE have expressed opinions indicating the belief runs that W SCHUBERT, in order to avoid competition and possible overshadowing of himself, deliberately suppressed SCHREIDER & BAUER, who has left Dienst. 161 (ex-GV H) to join the Bavarian LKA (Landeskriminalamt); they noted that SCHREIDER was a very thorough man and were pleased that he recently emerged from the oblivion to which he had been relegated by W SCHUBERT as CI/CE chief of GV H. (Alfred D. Jones)

[] comments: W RISCHE's statements to me several months ago were the exact opposite to the above. He characterized SCHREIDER as being a "little man", "extremely stupid", the latter reflected in his work since joining the Org. W RISCHE lamented that SCHREIDER, who really played a minor role in "North Pole" ("Englandspiel"), had been the first to capitalize on it in the post-war era by getting a book published. Interesting that W SCHUBERT now emerges as the real culprit.
